I. Serve the public with honest values.

II. Tell the truth about what is offered.

III. Tell the truth in a forthright manner so its significance may be understood by the trusting as well as the analytical.

IV. Tell customers what they want to know – what they have a right to know and ought to know about what is offered so that they may buy wisely and obtain the maximum satisfaction from their purchases.

V. Be prepared and willing to make good as promised and without quibble on any guarantee offered.

VI. Be sure that the normal use of merchandise or services offered will not be hazardous to public health or life.

VII. Reveal material facts, the deceptive concealment of which might cause consumers to be misled.

VIII. Advertise and sell merchandise or service on its merit and refrain from attacking your competitors or reflecting unfairly upon their products, services, or methods of doing business.

IX. If testimonials are used, use only those of competent witnesses who are sincere and honest in what they say about what you sell.

X. Avoid all tricky devices and schemes such as deceitful trade-in allowances, fictitious list prices, false and exaggerated comparative prices, bait advertising, misleading free offers, fake sales and similar practices which prey upon human ignorance and gullibility.

Zip de numbers are shown immediately following each street description. If a street runs through more than one, e new Zip Code number is shown immediately preceding the lowest street number in the new zone.

The umerals that appear at right edge of columns, ahead of street descriptions and some street intersections, erely r the guidance of the publishers, and have no other significance.

This ction includes some listings reading "No Return." In each case the Publishers tried diligently, by us mens, to obtain the information for the occupants but were unsuccessful. First, two personal calls were by a enumerator; next, a double postal card was mailed and the telephone used when possible.
